What is Lectio Divina?

While reading sacred scripture, read the words with a love and sense of discovery until something seems to strike home. Sit with the passage as one would with a good friend- not just thinking or analyzing, but instead remaining in a quiet, listening spirit, so the word can nurture and challenge you.

Call to Prayer

"Let us take a moment in the midst of all our activity to prepare ourselves for prayer."

Excerpts from SNOW FALLING ON SNOW

The Word of God

Choose one of next Sunday's readings. One person reads the scripture aloud as others are attentive to a word, phrase, or theme that is meaningful to them. Allow for a minute of silent reflection. Have another person read the same scripture a second time.

Faith Sharing

Begin with an open ended question such as "What strikes you from this reading?" and/or you can use the "Reflection Question" found on our website or bulletin. Allow time for reflection & sharing.

Closing Prayer

At the end of the faith sharing, invite participants to pray aloud for any particular petitions or praises they may have. Feel free to close with: The Lord's Prayer or Spontaneous prayers or a faith-based song.

Reflection Question for Next Sunday, January 24, 2010

Today, Jesus proclaims what he was anointed to do. We are anointed also: at Baptism we were Christ-ened, so Jesus' mission is now ours as well. What kind of blindness, poverty, captivity do you encounter? Maybe someone unable to see the embrace of a loving God? Or someone imprisoned by loneliness that a call, visit or kind word from you could free? Or someone sad and weary who would be enriched by your smile or friendly word?

Dear Parishioners:

I am pleased this weekend to welcome The Fordham University Choir to our parish. The choir, under the direction of Mr. Robert Minotti is honoring us by singing at the 4:00 pm Mass this Saturday.

The Fordham University Choir is a select mixed ensemble comprised of 35 students from the University's Rose Hill and Lincoln Center campuses. The Choir's repertoire of sacred and secular music is representative of the finest choral tradition. The Choir keeps a full performance schedule that includes five campus concerts and an annual tour. The Choir often performs at various venues in the New York metropolitan area, including Carnegie Hall, the Rockefeller Center Christmas Tree, and St. Patrick's Cathedral. In December of 2007 the choir performed at Carnegie Hall with Irish tenor Cairan Sheehan and soprano Gay Willis as part of a celebration of Christmas music. ... The Choir has performed in many major U.S. cities, such as Chicago, Los Angeles, Boston, San Francisco, Philadelphia, and Washington, D.C.—and can now impress the world by adding Clarksville!!! Internationally, the Choir has performed in Canada, Italy, and Spain.

In the name of our parish community, I extend to Mr. Minotti and all the members of the Fordham University Choir our sincere gratitude for honoring us by their visit and lifting our spirits at the 4pm Liturgy.

Msgr. Luca

LECTORS! Please watch your e-mail for an upcoming Ministry Enrichment Program. Here's the plan: We will offer you 3 sessions to attend (January 23 at 10 am or at 1pm, or January 30 at 10 am). Fr Dominique will kick it off with a brief inspiration on the theology and ministry of being called to be a Proclaimer of the Word. Then, we will ask you to "just do it" and proclaim one of three brief readings that will be used in upcoming liturgies. We will record you, give you the CD to watch in the privacy of your rec room or kitchen. Before you leave we will provide you with a note of feedback to keep in mind when you watch yourself in action. We do a wonderful job for Jesus each week, and this is a chance to experience your proclamation as others hear and see you. It's the best way to boost confidence (Hey! That's better than I thought!) and eliminate little quirks (It sounds like I can't wait for this to be over and get back to the pew. I do need to slow down!) Questions? Please contact Mike Leumas or Marianne Faulstich.

EDUCATION

Brrrrr....baby it's cold outside! The weather has our students wearing their pajamas inside out and watching the weather channel wishing for snow! Our teachers, on the other hand, are hoping for a little heat wave so the kids can go out for recess!

Thank you for all of you who have responded to our Fund for St. Louis School mailing. We have already raised over $26,000 toward our goal! Our success depends largely on the support of our community and we are grateful for your generosity.

Save the date! Please come by the school on Sunday, January 31st from 10:30 – 2 p.m. for our Open House! We invite you to tour the school, visit with the teachers and administrators, meet some of our students, and learn more about your parish school. Our enrollment season is underway and we are now accepting applications for the 2010-2011 school year! We are looking forward to meeting you! Stay warm and have a great week!

YOUTH MINISTRY

Okay, I got lost again recently while hiking. I thought of not telling anyone...I mean, who is really going to know since I was hiking alone near Mt. Airy, right? No one was there when I decided to 'take a shortcut' and instead of going totally around the large hill, I chose to 'cut my time' by going straight up. But, then I found the reflection below by Sudha Khristmukti called "Along The Way" (Alive Now, November/December 2009) and realized that it is appropriate not only for my hiking experience but for this New Year!

Sometimes it is becoming lost that I am truly found. In the hour of darkness that I see God's light; in being helpless that I seek God's strength, a strength far greater than mine. In reaching a dangerous precipice that I discover important truths. In losing that I really win. In searching that I really find. In the face of rejection, humiliation, pain, and unspeakable grief, that I find the true measure of God's unconditional love and the blessing of God's peace....When I finally dare to take that step of trust, and let God into my heart; into all the wounded places the world cannot see. When I dare to take refuge in the shelter of God's care, when I dare to prepare God room. To live the journey of the faith that I profess.

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

In today's second reading, Saint Paul tells the Corinthians, and us, that all of our gifts are from God and that they are given, not for ourselves alone, but for the common good. The generosity of God knows no limits --the wedding feast at Cana reminds us that whenever we faithfully do what God asks, He can change our gifts of water into wine!

PLANNED GIVING

As parishioners of Saint Louis Church, old or new, we are all beneficiaries of more than 150 years of service and parishioner generosity. A planned gift to Saint Louis Church, will sustain this good work for generations to come. For more information on making a planned gift to Saint Louis Church, contact Mary Helfrich, Parish Development Director at 410-531-6040 or MHelfrich@stlouisparish.org.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO HELP SEW BAPTISMAL BIBS?

St. Louis has a team of wonderful volunteers who share their time and talent sewing Baptismal Bibs for the babies and children who are baptized. The bibs represent the white garment put on when they become a new creation in Christ. It is an outward sign of our Christian dignity. If you would like to help sew bibs call Julie Farmer at 301-854-1223 or email farmertakesawife@aol.com. Directions and materials are provided.

CATHOLIC ADVOCACY LOBBY NIGHT: Please consider making a commitment to join other Catholics from all over Maryland on President's Day February 15 to offer a "Testimony of Charity" at the 26th Annual Catholic Lobby Night in Annapolis. Lobby Night is an advocacy event that gives Catholic voters the opportunity to speak with their State elected officials about Social Justice issues, like support for women in challenging pregnancies, tax help for non-public schools, clarifying what "marriage" means. Full range of topic will be available as time draws nearer.

DO NOT BE AFRAID! Your presence alone is invaluable: you can just BE THERE while someone else does the talking!

Lobby Night lasts from 3pm to 8pm; we provide buses from St. Louis. WATCH this space for information on registering – we need to know how many buses we need and the Maryland Catholic Conference needs to know who is coming so they schedule appointments with the legislators.
