What is Lectio Divina?

While reading sacred scripture, read the words with a love and sense of discovery until something seems to strike home. Sit with the passage as one would with a good friend-not just thinking or analyzing, but instead remaining in a quiet, listening spirit, so the word can nurture and challenge you.

Call to Prayer

"Let us take a moment in the midst of all our activity to prepare ourselves for prayer."

The Word of God

Choose one of next Sunday's readings. One person reads the scripture aloud as others are attentive to a word, phrase, or theme that is meaningful to them. Allow for a minute of silent reflection. Have another person read the same scripture a second time.

Faith Sharing

Begin with an open ended question such as "What strikes you from this reading?" and/or you can use the "Reflection Question" found on our website or bulletin. Allow time for reflection & sharing.

Closing Prayer

At the end of the faith sharing, invite participants to pray aloud for any particular petitions or praises they may have. Feel free to close with: The Lord's Prayer or Spontaneous prayers or a faith-based song.

Reflection Question for Next Sunday, March 17, 2013

Jesus calls us to have unconditional love for our brothers and sisters, like he shows for each one of us. Sometimes, though, we confuse love with approval. Jesus is able to love without condoning evil. In today's Gospel, Jesus doesn't close his eyes to the sin of the woman caught in adultery, but he loves her no less and calls her to turn her life around. Is there anyone you find hard to love because their actions are unacceptable?

Congratulations as well to Heather Langsdale who received the Archdiocesan Bronze Pelican Award from Archbishop Lori on March 3rd. The Bronze Pelican award is presented to individuals who have made significant and outstanding contributions to the spiritual development of Catholic Youth in Scouting.

Congratulations are also extended to John and Ginny Sniezek and Family for being named the 2012-2013 Catholic Family of the Year by the Maryland State Council of the Knights of Columbus. TABLEAU STATIONS OF THE CROSS: Each Good Friday evening for many years, parishioners have enacted the Stations of the Cross. We have openings for women roles: Mary, Veronica, the Women of Jerusalem. No acting experience or training necessary: if you can stand still for a few minutes, you can do this. Perhaps you want to be involved but not as an actor? We have an opening for the Coordinator. Join us this year to see what is involved (it is not complex!) The Tableau is a loving service to the whole parish and only takes a bit of organizing during Lent. Please contact Marianne Faulstich mfaulstich@stlouishparish.org, 410-531-6040.

EDUCATION

As we write this column, we are looking forward to a great week – and keeping our eye on the weather forecast! Our Science Fair for students in Grades 4, 6, and 8 is scheduled for the same nights as the predicted oncoming snow, so we are crossing our fingers...but we're not sure what we are hoping for! And we are all looking forward to the yummy food served at this weekend's CYM Italian Dinner!

Many of our students and families will be participating as seaters and servers, and the all-important clean-up crew, and we are happy to help out with this great, parish wide tradition!

Congratulations to our student Basketball Champions! This past week our teams brought home many trophies and we are excited to share the news of our very own March Madness! Our girls CYO Team advanced to the Semi-Finals of the Baltimore CYO tournament playing aggressive defense and an attacking offense against a competitive St. Mark team. The girls advanced to play in the semi-finals this weekend, so stay tuned. The boys' team also advanced to the semi-finals, winning the championship game in the 10-12 division of the Trinity league. Our players and coaches have worked really hard all season and we are proud of their sportsmanship and dedication! Keep the "madness" going! -- Go Knights!

Do you have a "cool" job that you are willing to share with our students? On Friday, April 12th, St. Louis School will be hosting a Career day to give our students a glimpse into the future and all of the possibilities for an exciting and productive career. If you would like to share your talents with us, we would be happy to have you join us! For more information, please contact Mrs. Heather Langsdale at (410) 802-7048.

Mark your calendars and save the date! Our 21st Annual St. Louis Golf Classic will be held on Monday, May 20th, 2013, at the beautiful Cattail Creek Country Club. Register at www.stlouisparish.org/school/golf, or pick up a brochure in the Narthex.
