

Leo Regensburger

March 1, 2011

Dear Leo,

On behalf of the St. Louis Pastoral Council, we would like to publicly commend you for your many charitable deeds and your unselfish service to our Church and the community. You have always made yourself available at any time of the day or night to anyone in need, be it counseling, visiting the sick or lonely, helping in a physical move, transportation, supporting church activities, and most of all in evangelization. Your leadership in developing and teaching the Catechism and Bible study stands out as personal testaments of your devotion to St. Louis ministries. Your work with the Knights of Columbus, soup kitchens, prison ministry, ACTS retreat and Adoration of our Lord are just a few more of your many deeds of love for our Lord and our parish.

Your life is dedicated to making Jesus known to everyone you meet. We personally know that you have helped several of our parishioners that have fallen away from the Church. You have spent many weeks with these parishioners and as a direct result of your intervention, they have returned to our faith. St. Paul's words are just in commending you:

“Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves.”

Philippians 2:3

Leo, we honor you today because you humbly regard others more important than yourself through your many acts of kindness and service. We are most grateful and blessed in our Church and the community for having you.

Again, we thank you for always going beyond in your many works for our Lord and St. Louis Church. May the good Lord continue to bless you and yours abundantly.

With sincerest appreciation,
St. Louis Pastoral Council

Christine A. Timanus
President
St. Louis Pastoral Council

Rev. Monsignor Joseph L. Luca
Pastor
St. Louis Catholic Church